About ZADAR

Ancient and modern. Peaceful and adventurous. Classical and rock 'n' roll. That's Zadar, a true Dalmatian present just like its name suggests. (Cro. za dar - 'for present'). With a couple of millennia of existence, it has quite a fine collection of historical sights and legends paired with the modern vibe of 21st century attractions. Oh, yeah! Zadar has the whole package, and here are the highlights:

1. Hello to Zadar's streets and squares!

Feel the pulse of the historical peninsula by walking along Kalelarga, sipping coffee on People's Square or Five Wells' Square and passing through the Land Gate and by the city walls (UNESCO World Heritage Site).

2. Treat for the senses:

Sea Organ and Greeting to the Sun

Treat your eyesight and hearing to a unique experience with Zadar's most famous modern attractions.

3. Doing as the Romans/Croatians do: Roman Forum and St Donatus' Church

Don't miss the focal point of the city since forever - ancient Roman Forum and Zadar's landmark, St Donatus' Church.

4. Straight to the top: Belltower and Captain's Tower

Appreciate Zadar in all its glory and climb the belltower of St Anastasia's Cathedral and Captain's Tower for the best views of the city.

5. From history to illusions: Zadar's museums

To learn about ancient life, pick up exciting souvenirs have extra fun, go to the Archaeological Museum, Museum of Ancient Glass and Museum of Illusions.

- Kalelarga is said to be older than the city itself?
- Zadar has the the most beautiful sunset in the world, not only because A. Hitchcock said so?
- A sphinx in Zadar, the largest in this part of Europe, grants love wishes?
- The quickest way to get from the peninsula to the mainland is by using barkajoli's rowing service (since the 14th century)?

When in ZADAR do as Zadrans do simple as that!

Here's how:

- 1 Don't mistake coffee for a hot, black drink. It's so much more than that - it's an invitation to hang out for hours on end without a care in the world. Even if you have beer instead.
- 2 Don't mistake the most important secondary thing in the world, football, for Zadar's favourite sport. Learn basketball lingo instead. After all, Zadrans say they invented this sport.
- 3 Don't mistake 'taking it easy' for idleness. It's called fjaka and it's a part of the art of living well. Join in and become an artist yourself!

- 4 Don't mistake a friendly banter on the street for shouting and potential fighting. Zadrans are passionate and loud, but harmless. Because life's good.
- 5 Don't mistake picigin for just fooling around with a ball in water. Or showing-off in front of beach-goers. Try it and you'll see it ain't as easy as it seems. But it's fun!
